- Halloween Danceathon- October 28th: This popular favorite transforms the cafeteria into the spookiest nightclub in Brooklyn. Help set up and decorate, sell food, paint faces, give out prizes, and clean up.
- School Picture Day- October 18th: Individual and class photos capture this precious year in each student's life. We'll need help combing hair, straightening outfits, and generally managing the flow of classes being photographed.
- Silent Art Auction- TBD: A fun parents-night-out (without kids!) to enjoy an evening of music, drinks, and fantastic artwork by local artists. We need parents to help collect and hang artwork, manage bid sheets, and wrap artwork at the end.
- Book Fair- November 15th-17th: This runs during and after the school day for a few days in mid-November. We need parents to help set up and stock the shelves, run the register, and chat with happy customers.
- Holiday Bazaar- November 13th-16th: This gift sale right before December break brings together unique crafts from artisans within our school community-- the best place to do your holiday shopping. We need parents to help set up and staff the tables at drop-off and pickup time.
- Brooklyn Boogie Brunch (mid winter): Held on a weekend afternoon, this family rock concert is one reason PS 295 is famous for our events. We need parent volunteers to help with selling food, painting faces, doing crafts, and other fun jobs.
- Touch-a-Truck (May): Our behemoth fundraiser with trucks, art projects, food, bouncy houses, and other activities calls for lots of parent volunteers in the planning and day-of execution.
- Spring Arts Festival (June): This festival celebrates the Student Art Show. We need parents to help with setup/cleanup, selling food, running craft projects, face painting, and music.

- ❑ Family Fun Fridays-- 4 dates throughout the year: A free Friday night event where all our families get together for food, fun activities, and free play. Join the committee that makes this fun community-building night come together.

- ❑ Cupcake Friday-- Last Friday of Every Month: This monthly cupcake-themed bake sale is one of our favorite traditions! Lots of people bake cupcakes; we need a few parents to set up and sell the cupcakes at school pickup time in the courtyard.
